Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

The National Intelligence Council (NIC) consists of the most senior intelligence analysts supporting the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) in carrying out responsibilities as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC) and as the principal adviser to the President for intelligence matters related to national security. The NIC produces a variety of all-source, IC coordinated intelligence reports, including its flagship product, the National Intelligence Estimate, which represents the Intelligence Community's most authoritative statement on a key national security issue.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead Intelligence Community (IC) production of strategic analyses on issues of importance to United States (US) interests for the Koreans and advise ODNI leadership on key developments and issues.
- Lead and oversee the preparation, production, and coordination of National Intelligence Estimates and other community-coordinated papers (Intelligence Community Assessments and Sense of the Community Memoranda).
- Provide expert analytical assessments to the ODNI leadership, policymakers and military leaders regarding the Koreans.
- Lead, plan, and oversee the preparation of background papers and briefing books for the DNI and Deputy DNI's participation in National Security Council, Cabinet meetings, and other senior-level policymaking meetings; support the National Intelligence Manager-East Asia and/or National Intelligence Officer-North Korea's participation in interagency policymaking meetings; represent IC analysis in interagency meetings at the sub-Policy Coordinating Committee level.
- Provide strategic guidance, direction, and leadership to the IC regarding analysis and production priorities, and in doing so identify critical intelligence gaps and support collection initiatives based on customer needs and analytic requirements.
- Lead, plan, and facilitate community sessions attended by IC specialists and non-US Government subject matter experts to address major events and trends and represent the IC, DNI, National Intelligence Council (NIC), and the National Intelligence Officers (NIO) in the sessions.
- Lead and oversee the preparation of correspondence and/or products in response to congressional tasking, including testimony, talking points, and statements for the record for the DNI and senior DNI staff.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Brief senior IC members, policymakers, military decision makers, members of Congress, and other major stakeholders on the Koreas.
- Review and analyze IC analytic components' research and production plans regarding the Koreas, identify redundancies and gaps, direct strategies to address gaps, and advise the DNI on gaps and shortfalls in analytic capabilities across the IC.
- Establish and foster liaison relationships with IC analysts, analytic managers, and collection managers as well as academia, the business community, and other non-government subject matter experts to ensure the IC has a comprehensive understanding of emerging trends relating to Korea.
- Support and/or act for the National Intelligence Officer for North Korea.
- Recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse collaborative networks with the ODNI and across the IC.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expertise on the Koreas, particularly internal political, economic, social and informational dynamics in North Korea; and a deep understanding of relevant US foreign policy priorities, particularly US and international sanctions on North Korea; proven ability to synthesize complex issues involving the Koreas for senior policymakers.
- Expert knowledge of the IC's analytic and collection communities and missions for the Koreas, particularly regarding North Korean economics and internal stability, sufficient to lead IC analytic production and identify collection requirements and gaps.
- Superior interpersonal, organizational, and management skills and an expert ability to conceptualize and effectively lead complex analytic projects and promote consensus building across the IC when analytic views differ across agencies.
- Superior oral and written communications skills, including an expert ability to communicate effectively with people at all levels of the IC, deliver effective oral presentations, prepare finished intelligence assessments and other written products with emphasis on clear organization and logical presentation, and represent the NIC in interagency meetings.
- Expertise working with all parts of the IC in order to shape analytic production and encourage sound tradecraft.
- Expert ability to prioritize and manage multiple short-term and longer-term tasks and projects and perform senior staff functions as required.
- Expert knowledge of and superior ability to apply research capabilities and analytic, diagnostic, and qualitative techniques in order to produce authoritative finished intelligence products; expert ability to employ new methodological approaches to analyze information.
- Creative problem-solving skills and superior ability to provide leadership in carrying out mission responsibilities.
